Day 1  Apr 9

Honolulu → Haneda

Our vacation starts by boarding an international flight bound for Beijing via Haneda. Meals and snacks will be served on the plane.

Day 2  Apr 10

Haneda

We arrive at Haneda International Airport and overnight in the airport hotel in Haneda.

Day 3  Apr 11

Haneda → Beijing

In the morning, we will walk to Haneda Airport and fly to Beijing, the huge capital of China and an ancient city of great splendor whose history goes back 3 millennia. Upon arrival, an Air & Sea Travel Representative will greet and take us to our hotel. We can enjoy the rest of the day and explore the city on our own.

Day 4 Apr 12

Beijing  Zhengzhou – Dengfeng

(B, L, D)

After breakfast, we will take a Bullet Train to Zhengzhou, is the capital city of Henan Province located in the central of China, is one of the eight National Central Cities serving as the political, economic, technological, and educational center of the province, as well as a major transportation hub in China. Lunch bento will be arranged on the train. After arrival, we will check in to our hotel in Dengfeng. Tonight, a welcome dinner will be arranged.

Day 5 Apr 13

Dengfeng

(B, L, D)

Dengfeng is a county-level city in Zhengzhou. It is located at the foot of Mount Song, one of the most sacred mountains in China. The city is one of the most renowned spiritual centers of China and home to various religious institutions and temples such as the Taoist Zhongyue Temple, the UNESCO World Heritage Site Buddhist Shaolin Temple, and the Confucian Songyang Academy. First, we will visit the Martial Arts School to understand the life of a student in a Kung Fu school. Tonight, we will watch the Shaolin Chan Zong Show which cost 35 million Yuan to produce. One hundred Kung Fu monks perform at the same time and the show is as grand as the Olympic Ceremony.

Day 6  Apr 14

Dengfeng – Luoyang

(B, L, D)

Today's highlight is a Shaolin Temple, the home of Chinese martial arts (Kung Fu) and China's Oldest Pagoda Forest where monks are buried. After the special Dengfeng Roast Duck Lunch, we will drive to Luoyang, an ancient city with a long history and splendid culture. Luoyang lies in the west of Henan Province, which is located in central North China. It is seated on the north bank of the Luo River, a southern tributary of the middle reaches of the Yellow River, so it is called Luoyang because “yang” in Chinese means the north or sunny bank of the river.

Day 7 Apr 15

Luoyang

(B, L, D)

Today's highlight is the Peony Garden and Peony Gene Pool. The beautiful and graceful peony is the national flower of China and is called the “King of Flowers”. Today there are more than 300 varieties of peonies in Luoyang. People from around the country and abroad are attracted to Luoyang when the peony flowers are in full bloom. In the afternoon, visit Longmen Grottoes. This UNESCO World Heritage Site is one of the three major grottoes in China constructed more than four hundred years ago. Also, enjoy the most famous Luoyang Water Feast (Luoyang Shui Xi) which features many kinds of soup for dinner.

Day 8  Apr 16

Luoyang – Pingyao

(B, L, D)

After breakfast, we will drive to Pingyao, a city listed by UNESCO as a World Cultural Heritage. Pingyao's old town is typically considered the best ancient walled city in China and is on many lists of the best-walled cities in the world. Picture a period film showing ancient China - and you won't be far off. We will transfer to a Shanxi tour bus as we enter Shanxi province. Upon arrival, we check into our hotel to enjoy the charming old-style courtyard hotel with special Kamg Style Bedrooms in the walled city of Pingyao. Pingyao Merchant's Traditional Banquet will be served in the evening.

Day 9 Apr 17*Pingyao*(B, L, D)

Today we will spend the entire day in the ancient town. Visit Ancient Ming and Qing Streets, the City Wall of Pingyao, and the Rishengchang (Sunrise Property) where the earliest bank started in China. Noodles were one of the popular and main dishes in ancient China. Today, we will have a hands-on experience making Pingyao Style Noodles. And we will enjoy the noodles for our dinner.

Day 10  Apr 18Pingyao – Taiyuan*(B, L, D)

After breakfast, we will go to Qiao's Compound, built on 4,220 square yards. There are six main courtyards and twenty minor ones within the compound. These compounds belonged to one family in the Qing Dynasty. It has been featured in many famous movies such as the "Red Lantern". Then we drive to Taiyuan, the capital city of Shanxi Province, and visit Donghu Vinegar Garden. Donghu Vinegar Garden is a corporatization and factory museum in Shanxi Province that dynamically displays the traditional and modern vinegar production process and the historical and cultural connotations of old vinegar. Here, we can fully understand the old Shanxi by means of ancient and modern utensils, literature, pictures, and product displays. Located in Taiyuan, Zhonglou Street, also known as Bell Tower Street, is named after a bell tower which was built there during the Ming Dynasty. The ancient bell tower was used to announce the time. Zhonglou Street has been a commercial market area for over a century. Now, many local specialties can be found on the street, like dough carvings, mature vinegar, paper cuttings and more. Let us enjoy some shopping here. We will check in to our hotel in Taiyuan after dinner.

Day 11  Apr 19Taiyuan – Datong*(B, L, D)

After breakfast, visit the Coal Museum of China, which is the symbol of Taiyuan city. The highlights of the tour are the display of coal formation, a 4D Theater show, and a coal cart ride through a replica of an underground coal mine. After lunch, drive to Datong, the second-largest city in Shanxi Province. On the way, we will pass through YanMenGuan Pass, the location of one of the most important fortresses on the Great Wall of China. Surrounded by tall mountain peaks and accessible only by an ancient road that works its way between the cliffs, this pass was the logical invasion point for foreigners (especially Mongolians) looking to pour into China. Over a 2,000-year period, over 130 major battles took place at this strategically important mountain bottleneck.

Day 12  Apr 20Datong*(B, L, D)

The scenic spots we will see today are "must-see" places according to many websites and TV programs when visiting Datong. In the morning, we drive to Hunyuan to visit the Hanging Monastery (Xuankong Si) which is built on extremely sheer cliffs above Jinlong Canyon. Construction dates back 1400 years to the Northern Wei Dynasty. In the afternoon, we visit the Caves of Yungang Grottoes which house over 51,000 Buddha sculptures completed during the Northern Wei Dynasty (460-494AD). It extends one kilometer from east to west, and represent the outstanding achievement of Buddhist cave arts. This UNESCO World Heritage Site is staggering, beautiful, and marvelous. We will have our Farewell Dinner tonight.

Day 13 Apr 21*Datong – Beijing*(B, D)

This morning, we will transfer back to Beijing. Upon arrival, please enjoy the balance of the day at leisure. Tonight's Dinner features China's famous Peking Ducks.

Day 14  Apr 22Beijing → Haneda → Honolulu*(B)

After breakfast, we will transfer to the Beijing International Airport for our return flight via Haneda. This ends our wonderful tour in China.

* Special China Visa w/ 10 years multiple entries is available at $300 ****

We wish you a safe journey and capture many wonderful memories to share with family and friends! 😊
