Following this, we will participate in a Tea Ceremony. The Japanese tea ceremony, also known as the Way of Tea, is a cultural activity centered around the ceremonial preparation and presentation of matcha, powdered green tea. We will enjoy an informal tea gathering. Later, we will have time for shopping in Shinsaibashi, Osaka's largest and most renowned shopping area, where many boutiques and specialty shops attract both locals and visitors. Shinsaibashi evolved from the arcaded streets of the Shinsaibashi Shopping Street, with a history spanning 380 years, dating back to the Edo Period. The street features a 600-meter-long roofed arcade lined with shops catering to all ages. Finally, we will explore Dotonbori, another major tourist destination in Osaka. One of the area's most iconic landmarks is "The Glico Man," a billboard for Glico, depicting a runner crossing the finish line, which has become a symbol of Osaka. It is Tokyo's oldest and one of its most significant temples. The temple is dedicated to the Bodhisattva Kannon (Avalokitesvara). Dominating the entrance to the temple is the Kaminarimon or "Thunder Gate". This imposing Buddhist structure features a massive paper lantern dramatically painted in vivid red-and-black tones to suggest thunderclouds and lightning. Beyond the Kaminarimon is Nakamise-dori with its shops, followed by the Hozomon or "Treasure House Gate" which provides the entrance to the inner complex. Within the precincts stand A Stately Five-story Pagoda and the Main Hall, devoted to Kannon Bosatsu. Catering to the visiting crowds, the surrounding area has many traditional shops and eating places that feature traditional dishes (hand-made noodles, sushi, tempura, etc.). These shops themselves are part of a living tradition of selling things to pilgrims who walked to Senso-ji. We can enjoy our own lunch here. After that, we will transfer to Odaiba. Odaiba, is a large artificial island in Tokyo Bay across the Rainbow Bridge from central Tokyo. It was initially built for defensive purposes in the 1850s, dramatically expanded during the late 20th century as a seaport district, and has developed since the 1990s into a major commercial, residential and leisure area.
