Tonight, enjoy a famous Tango Show and a scrumptious dinner at an Argentina style restaurant.

Day 8Oct 27*Buenos Aires*(B, L, D)

After breakfast, we will have a full day City Tour. Along 9 de Julio Avenue, the widest street in the city, it is possible to spot the Obelisk, the monument that symbolizes the city, and the famous Colon Theatre (Opera House), a masterpiece of architecture with superb acoustics. Then on to San Telmo neighborhood, birthplace of the city, and to May Square, historical and political center, surrounded by the Government House or 'Casa Rosada', site of the national government; the Cabildo, historical building which was the center of the colonial political life; the Metropolitan Cathedral and the Town Hall, site of the city government. We proceed to La Boca district, a picturesque neighborhood where the Italian immigrants settled and the location of Caminito Street, famous because it inspired the tango "Carminito" by Juan de Dios Filiberto. Heading north, we enter the aristocratic Recoleta district, known for its Cemetery and visit Palermo, a wide and beautiful park located in the heart of one of the most elegant areas in the city. After lunch, we will go through the elegant northern riverside suburbs of Vicente Lopez, Olivos (where the President's Residence is located), San Isidro with its gothic Cathedral and San Fernando, to Tigre. We will board a typical motor Boat for a 1 hour cruise along the Parana River Delta. The Delta is 220 square kilometers in size with small islands and numerous streams spread throughout the area. Day 9Oct 28*Buenos Aires → Lima*(B, D)

Though its colonial center is preserved, Lima is a bustling metropolis and one of South America's largest cities. It's home to the Museo Larco collection of pre-Columbian art and the Museo de la Nación, tracing the history of Peru's ancient civilizations. Day 10Oct 29*Lima*(B, L)

After breakfast, we will visit Colonial Lima, the start of our tour. Sightseeing focuses on Lima's colonial heritage. Founded in 1535, Lima was once the capital of Spain's South American Empire. Visit the baroque 17th-century San Francisco Monastery, with Spanish and Moorish architecture throughout. Continue to Plaza Mayor, where we will see the Government Palace that houses the presidential palace that was once the home of Francisco Pizarro, founder of Lima and conqueror of Peru. Nearby, as we walk through the Cathedral of Lima's numerous chapels, we'll travel to the past and discover various architectural styles (from Renaissance to Neo-Classical) and learn about Peru's religious history. After lunch, we will visit Larco Museum, a privately owned museum of pre-Columbian art, housed in an 18th-century vice-royal building built over a 7th-century pre-Columbian pyramid.

Day 11Oct 30*Lima → Juliaca – Puno*(B, D)

This morning, we will transfer to the airport for a flight to Juliaca, a city in the San Román province of southern Peru. As a busy transit hub, it is a jumping-off point for Lake Titicaca, the vast Andean lake marked by Inca ruins and floating villages. Upon arrival, transfer to Puno, the capital city of the Puno Region and Province which is located on the shore of Lake Titicaca. We will take a panoramic tour of the historic center in the city and visit the Main Square before checking into the hotel.

Day 12Oct 31*Day trip to Lake Titicaca*(B, L, D)

After breakfast in the hotel, we start the day on Lake Titicaca, the highest water volume lake in South America, and the highest commercially navigable lake in the world. We take an early ride in a Motorboat, stopping at the Uros Floating Islands, a group of approximately 40 artificial islands inhabited by fishermen and hunters. We will learn how the Uros Indians construct their islands, homes, boats, and many other resources completely out of tortora reed, a centuries-old practice. We will stop at Taquile Island, where there are numerous pre-Inca and Inca ruins and terraces. The island is only about 0.62 mile wide and 3.7 to 4.3 miles long. The Taquile population was relatively isolated from the mainland until the 1950s. The notion of community is still deep-seated among them and is reflected in the strong organization of community life and collective decision-making. Taquile Island is famous for its craft production; particularly weaving that dates back to the ancient Inca, Pukara and Colla civilizations. This is evident by the Spanish peasant dresses made of Andean textiles – the islanders make some of the finest in all of Peru. (There is a local museum of traditional costumes.) The visit could be exhausting due to the steep path that goes up to the village and the altitude (13,000 ft.). Return to Puno and hotel at night.

Day 13Nov 1*Puno → Cusco*(B, D)

After breakfast, we will board a flight to Cusco, a city in the Peruvian Andes which was once the capital of the Inca Empire, and is now known for its archaeological remains and Spanish colonial architecture. It is the city that was once the political, military, and cultural epicenter of the Incas until the Spanish toppled it. Upon arrival, we will continue our visit with a stroll through the Main Square, where we can see the Cathedral and admire its exquisite vestibules and priceless paintings from the Cusco School of the 17th and 18th centuries. Then, check in hotel and stay overnight.

Day 14Nov 2*Cusco – Sacred Valley*(B, L, D)

Some of the best examples of Inca masonry can be found at this fortress, where stones weighing up to 350 tons are pieced together to form a complex that could house up to 10,000 men. Learn about the ceremonies and battles that took place here. We continue our tour to Sacred Valley, formed by the Vilcanota or Urubamba River and encompassing the heartland of the past Inca Empire. It will begin in Pisac, a beautiful place where Incan and Colonial influences have reached a perfect balance and created the unique way of life of the local inhabitants. We will get a chance to explore this quaint town and Pisac Market, famous for its artisans where we can find extraordinarily fine jewelry and ceramic and textile craftwork.
